

IMPACT INVESTING

Strategy and Action

IMPACT INVESTING

Strategy and Action

B

ROCKEFELLER PHILANTHROPY ADVISORS
PHILANTHROPY ROADMAP

Moving From Intent to Action approaches, as well as financial tools and investment principles. For a review of relevant terms, please refer to the Glossary.

SUSTAINABILITY

ANALYSIS

an objective lens to address significant needs, optimizing potential impact

When?

Effective investing relies not only on how to invest, but also for how

What is your desired investment timeline for your financial return?

Who?

they support, while others find this less appealing. Your available Professional advice from legal, financial and philanthropic with them. As this field matures, many peer learning networks will transparency (e.g., Heron) and others have a mandate to share

Once you've put ample time and thought into the PREPARE stage, you

BOTH SIDES OF THE COIN
THE ARAGONA FAMILY FOUNDATION

flexibility of the practice can offer more than one staff is critical for success.

the foundation's investments role. His background includes nonprofit experience, which

Foundation's experience with that aligned with the foundation's in Student Loan Genius, a social student loan benefits and has financial wellness and engage

(PRI), where the social benefit prospects of a financial return.

He started small, with loans to nonprofits offering structured

He positioned impact financial return alongside

Foundation's expertise, flexibility,

“If nothing else, I’d like folks to know that impact investing is not exclusively a tool or domain for the large multi-billion dollar national foundations.

Stage Two: Build

investing. For example, if you land on the far left (prioritizing financial return), your approach will be quite different than if you land on the

As you see the balance between impact and financial return, what part of the spectrum are you drawn towards? Which one reflects

Before moving forward, it's important to add the consideration of reviewed these lenses separately in the PREPARE section; it's now time to put them together with specific investment ideas

Lower Risk / Low Engagement

COMMUNITY FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

communities. Working with an organization like this takes little effort particular type is called a CDFI, or community development financial institution, which finances community businesses in difficult-to-serve guarantees in social enterprises. Benefits include the adjusted risk

Variable Risk / Low Engagement

seeking positive social and environmental impact and a financial return. The nonprofit offers a guide to impact investment fund managers, and the Global Impact Investing Network,

Lower Risk / High Engagement

influence its management and policies. The attempt to integrate responsibility or specific issue areas. Investors can work individually or in coalition with others, pushing to influence corporate behavior

Variable Risk / High Engagement

s

accomplishing part of the foundation's mission. Unlike grants, PRIs are expected to be paid back, often with a modest rate of return.

Structure

To be clear, structure decisions affect each other. Two possible

Build Consensus

Unless you're acting alone, impact investing can be as much collaborators has proven to be difficult for many, given the range of priorities and understanding within a foundation, family office or

For more specific considerations, please also see our guide "Talking

“As the number of impact investing advisors has grown, asset owners have moved from a scarcity of options to abundance—the challenge is now finding an advisor who understands how you want to connect your money and mission.”

Formalize Your Team

As you build consensus and consider advisors, also reflect on applicable. Think of those who have significant internal or external influence as well as those with particular social impact and/or staff working together. Look for characteristics particularly helpful to the task at hand, including flexibility, collaboration, patience,

When Kristin Hull's family

family's foundation—both effective approach to building that fit squarely within it.

noting that their financial risk is financial loss represented by a

Stage Three: Refine

Make Your First Investment

financial due diligence of potential opportunities. If you are coming from an investment angle, you might slowly integrate an ESG grant, such as, for instance, a low-interest loan to a nonprofit that wants to purchase office space.

When you feel comfortable with your progress towards your first to confirm adequate alignment. When you're ready and all the key

Resources

Here are additional resources for your impact investing journey.

UN PRI
unpri.org

implications of environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors

US SIF
ussif.org

Glossary

designed to result in positive social or environmental benefits while generating financial returns that are comparable to similar a foundation's endowment that seek to achieve specific goals to advance the foundation's mission while targeting market-rate financial returns comparable to similar non-mission focused investments. MRIs are not an official IRS designation and are foundation's mission and programmatic goals. Opportunities for MRIs exist across asset classes and issue areas.

ROCKEFELLER PHILANTHROPY ADVISORS

is a nonprofit that partners with individuals, families, and institutions to help make philanthropy more thoughtful and effective. Since 2002, establishing ourselves as one of the world's largest and most trusted innovative, early-stage nonprofits; and share insight and learning

our goal is to help define the next generation of philanthropy and to

P

WWW.ROCKPA.ORG